

The Parish Church of St Botolph, Longthorpe

WORLD WAR ONE CENTENARY COMMEMORATION

Exhibition 3rd to 18th November 2018, including a display of poppies in memory of all who served, and a Commemoration on Saturday 3rd November at 7pm

Do you have a family member or friend who served in the First World War? Would you like him/her to be remembered in our commemorative display and event? S/he may be a survivor or a casualty.

If you would like one of the poppies to be dedicated to a special person please fill in the following:

Christian and surname of person to be remembered: (IN CAPITAL LETTERS)

.....

Year of birth: Year of death:

Do you know any more about your special person? If you do please write a summary here, overleaf, on a separate sheet of paper and put it in the red box or email the details to janehogg44@gmail.com

.....
.....

Have you got any special mementoes of your special person, such as photos, medals, war records, or anything related to him/her which you could display? Please list them here or email the details to janehogg44@gmail.com

.....
.....

If you have special items, would you be prepared to display them at the special commemoration on Saturday 3rd November at 7 pm? Are you able to be at the event yourself and able to take full responsibility for the safety of your precious items?

Yes, I would like to display (detail, please)

I will be at the event and will look after my own mementoes

.....(signed and dated)

May details / photos about your special person be used in a Powerpoint presentation to be shown during the event?

Yes, I give my consent(signed and dated)

Lastly, please provide your preferred contact details in case there are any queries. Many thanks!

Jane Hogg